

TROUBLE AT EAST POINT

THE TOWN IN A STATE OF EXCITEMENT ALL DAY.

Help telegraphed for and an armed posse of Atlanta officers go to the scene—Negroes whipped by some of the crowd.

East Point was in a state of excitement yesterday.

The lynching of the night before and the rumors that the negroes were congregating for the avowed purpose of avenging the death of the negro boy, Powell, made everybody uneasy. Toward night this uneasiness increased. The negroes were believed to be organizing and fears of life and property were entertained by the whites.

About 8 o'clock, Chief Connolly received a telegram asking for fifty armed men. This transferred the excitement to Atlanta. There was a busy scene at the station. A squad of officers were sent on a special train and on that train were three of THE CONSTITUTION'S young men.

The Organization and the Trip. Yesterday evening, at a few minutes to eight o'clock, a telephone message was received at police headquarters that the negroes were massing at East Point, and that there was likely to be a good deal of trouble.

Captain Couch communicated with Chief Connolly and notified Sheriff Thomas.

Just about the time these officers arrived at the stationhouse a telegram was received, calling for fifty men well armed and with plenty of ammunition. The dispatch was signed by Mayor Pratt, and so urgent was the request that Chief Connolly sent out at once for a special detail of men, and a special train was secured.

In seventeen minutes after Engineer John G. Smith was notified at his home, the train was ready at the Central railroad yards.

The detail of officers consisting of Captain Couch, Sergeant Curtright, Patrolmen Aldridge, Robins, Gene Couch, Sewell, Norman, Sheridan, Waites, Poole, McElaffey, Waites, Owens, Reynolds, Phillips, Pelet, Steerman, Bedford and Cason, assembled at the stationhouse, and were armed with Winchester rifles.

They then marched on to the yards, under command of Chief Connolly. Sheriff Thomas and Deputy Sheriff Perkinson, also armed, were with the party, and when the men boarded the cars Sheriff Thomas was put in command.

When the order was given to pull out, Engineer Smith pulled wide the throttle and the Atlanta contingent was off and away. A heavy rainstorm came up, but nobody paid any heed to it. There was no stop—no slack.

The blinds were pulled down so that any one who might be near the road would never suspect what class of passengers the special bore. The engine was switch engine No. 135, but it moved over the ground as lightly as the finest passenger engine that was ever turned out of a shop.

Just before the train began to slow up at East Point Colonel Thomas instructed the men as to the order of march, and strict silence was enjoined. In seven and a half minutes after the train left Atlanta it slowed up at the siding at East Point.

The front door of the car was thrown open, and the men marched out into the darkness and through the drizzling rain. The Central railroad depot was the rendezvous, and into the waiting room the men marched, and met with such a welcome as police officers are seldom greeted with.

Among the few passengers who were in the special car was Charlie Wolfe, a youth who was run out of East Point during the afternoon. He told the story of his escape in a thrilling manner.

He is employed in a manufactory, but has been off for a week, and was at East Point all during the recent trouble. When the report came that the negroes were massing at the schoolhouse he went down there to find out something about it. The negroes saw him and one of them said:

"You get away from here if you don't want to be lynched."

The young fellow retreated but fired several shots before he left as a menace to the negroes, who were threatening vengeance against the white people in general.

A consultation was had with the mayor and other citizens, and it was decided best to wait quietly for a demonstration before taking any aggressive measures.

Thirty or forty men and boys were assembled at the depot, but not a negro was to be seen, except one that drove a buggy down from Atlanta.

The train stopped presently and the Atlanta delegates made themselves comfortable at the depot. Perhaps as many as a score of people were to be seen on the streets, the main group of them gathered at the town pump.

The Day at East Point. EAST POINT, September 5.—[Special.]—The post oak sapling to which Powell was hung last night has been surrounded by a group of curious spectators nearly all day.

Negroes for miles around have been to the spot.

But negroes were not alone in glancing at the tree and discussing the tragedy. Before the body was cut down many white persons went out to the scene of the hanging.

Early in the morning the rope which held the boy off the earth was cut in two and the body lowered. Then a jury of inquest was organized and a half dozen witnesses produced, but no one could be found who knew by whom the boy had been hung.

Nothing apart from the story printed in this morning's Constitution could be learned, and a verdict of hung by parties unknown was returned.

Then the body was placed in a box, and later in the day that box was put upon a train going to Atlanta. In the afternoon the box was found its way into one of the Atlanta medical colleges—that it is there now.

When the body had been disposed of, the scene changed from the tree to the town.

Of course the hanging and the brutal assault upon the young school girl which led to it was the only theme discussed. The assault was universally condemned, but the hanging, though considered just punishment for the boy's crime, was not indorsed.

The law should have been permitted to take its course and the negro should not have died by mob violence was the almost universal verdict among the white people.

Early in the day the negroes began to collect about the streets in groups of four and five and half dozens. Negro like there features were wild and many, while their tone was loud.

It soon became apparent to the whites that the negroes were mad and that they were bent upon mischief if they were not stopped.

Mayor Pratt remained at home, and by watching the events of the day carefully, concluded that trouble with the negroes was possible if not quite probable. He decided to suppress it in its inception and after consultations with the leading citizens determined upon his course.

At first the negroes appeared undecided as to what they should do, but before many hours had rolled by one of them, Jake Conley, stepped to the front with loud talk and much of it. He denounced the hanging of Powell as a great outrage upon the race, and declared that his color was worthless unless they retaliated upon the whites.

"We ought to kill them two bulls and the mayor, and burn the town," was his remarks to all who would listen to him.

In a short time the negroes began to look upon Conley as a leader, and wherever he went a crowd followed.

Mayor Pratt heard all the negro said, and realizing that he was likely to become a firebrand in the town, determined to let him know that his conduct would not be tolerated. Without Conley's knowing that the information was intended for him, the mayor informed him that a stand of Winchester rifles had been ordered from Atlanta and that police protection would be furnished by the Atlanta force if it was needed.

The information put a change upon Conley, and he subsided when he learned that he was in danger.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

The sight of the guns had a quiet effect upon the negroes and in a short time the groups began to grow fewer and smaller. The negroes seemed to realize that the good people would tolerate no foolishness and before the evening was half spent they had nearly all disappeared, and the streets were a deserted look. Quiet appeared to be thoroughly restored, and the citizens were correspondingly happy. Ladies, who had been fearing trouble all day, came from the houses, and at dusk nothing unusual could be detected.

BEFORE THE STORM. The calm was, however, the calm which precedes a storm. At 8 o'clock a telegram was sent to Atlanta for police protection, and a general feeling of uneasiness pervaded the whole community.

The mayor's statement that Winchester rifles had been ordered was true, however, and when the train came down just before 2 o'clock the guns were on it. They were removed to the depot and put in condition.

BARNES-BOSTICK.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING AT ST. PHILIP'S LAST NIGHT.

The wedding of Mr. E. H. Barnes and Miss Bostick was a brilliant one—Other News of Interest From the Society World.

Never was a more brilliant and beautiful wedding witnessed in Atlanta than that of Mr. Edward Herbert Barnes and Miss Allie May Bostick, which occurred last evening at St. Philip's church. The altar was draped in gold and white silk and brilliantly illuminated with white tapers in silver candelabra. The floral adornments were ferns, palms and pink and white roses. The church was filled with the invited guests, who were Atlanta's most prominent people.

At 8 o'clock the bride and groom entered. As the first notes of the wedding march of "Lohengrin" were heard, the groom and his best man, Mr. Chas. S. North, preceded by the rector of the parish, Rev. George Funston, entered from the vestry door. At the altar stood Mr. Joseph Sharp of Springfield, Ohio, and Dr. Wm. Perrin Nicolson; after them Mr. Thomas C. Erwin and Captain Robert J. Lowry.

Then came the bridesmaids. First, Miss Emma Dooly and Miss Josephine, both of Atlanta; then Miss Edith Hunt, the distance between the bridesmaids being the same as that between the attendants. Miss Spear and Miss Higginbotham came together, then Miss Hillyer followed alone. The maid of honor, Miss Bostick, and Miss Clara Sanders came next, preceding the bride, who walked alone.

The beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal church was here beautifully rendered. The reading of the service, the organ, responding to the touch of Mr. Samuel Bradley, gave forth soft, sweet music, and when the last words were uttered, Wagner's grand "Tannhauser" march was the signal for the return of the bride's party.

Following the bride and groom came Miss Bostick with Mr. North, Miss Sanders with Captain Lowry, Miss Hillyer with Mr. Erwin, Miss Higginbotham with Dr. Nicolson, Miss Spear with Mr. Sharp, Miss Hunt with Mr. Funston, and Miss Dooly with Mr. Lowry. The bride in her rare and brilliant beauty looked like the beautiful fairy Inez, who, "Duchess" and "Robbed the world of rest."

Her tall, lissome figure was never shown to greater advantage than in her bridal robe of pure white faille Franchise, with its long court train and long sleeves of white silk lace. The slipper was silver, and the bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. The gloves were long white undressed kid, and in her right hand she carried an exquisite bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaids' gowns were all alike, and were the unique creation of the bride's artistic taste. Then one of the number, Miss Josephine, roles of white faille, the plain, clinging skirts finished by full ruching of the same. The short waists were defined by ribbon belts forming two long streamers in front and adorned with white silk lace. The sleeves were short and puffed, and the round neck was finished with deep ecru lace ruching. The necklaces and shoes were silver and the bouquets were alternately white and pink roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaids, lovely girls in themselves, never looked so exquisitely quiet and pretty as they did in these enchanting gowns.

After the ceremony the bride's party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a most elegant reception was given to the attendants and a few friends, chiefly those from abroad.

The most unique feature of the entertainment was the presentation of a silver service, consisting of the young lady who was fortunate enough to win it that she would be the first in the party to be married. The bride stood ecstasied by her maid, the maid of honor, Miss Bostick, who, with her veil, then she reached out to her hand and touched one of the bouquets, and to the owner of that own bouquet was surrendered. Miss Edith Hunt, the bride's maid, was the fortunate young lady, and all her friends wanted to know exactly when the happy event would occur.

The elegant parlors were turned into bowers of beauty, and the stairway was adorned with palms, ferns and ivy. The mantel in the front drawing room was bedecked with roses and ferns, and tropical plants adorned the corners and alcoves. In this room the presents were displayed. There were so many that they covered the piano and every table in the room. All were elegant and in every beautiful taste.

In the second drawing room and on the canvas-covered veranda the delightful refreshments were exquisitely served. The bride's brides in rare and costly marvels of delicate art and taste. The table contained many bowls and epergnes of rare flowers and fruits. From the chandeliers in each apartment were suspended large balls of La France and Marseilles No. 100. Warm's orchestra furnished delightful music during the evening.

Mr. Barnes left at eleven o'clock for Chattanooga in Senator Brown's private car. From that city they will take a tour of all important western cities, returning in two weeks. They will reside at the Kimball.

All who know the happy couple agree in declaring that a more appropriate union was never made. In appearance and nature they seem perfectly matched. Mr. Barnes is a well-to-do, successful man of Atlanta's acknowledged belles and beauties and her loveliness of character and brilliancy of mind have won her numerous staunch friends. Her beauty and fascination has been far famed in all the other southern cities.

Mr. Barnes is known socially as an attractive and entertaining gentleman and in the railroad world he is widely and favorably known as superintendent of the Georgia division of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway. He is a railroad man of great ability and is everywhere known as a man of high integrity and noble character.

All who know them are sure that the wishes for a happy life together will be realized in the years to come.

Next Friday evening at the Second Baptist church one of the literary treats of the season will be given. Rev. W. S. Webb will deliver his lecture on Edgar Allan Poe, with illustrative readings by Dr. J. G. Armstrong. Both these gentlemen have made themselves famous by their handling of this great author, and when a similar programme was given some time ago it created the greatest sensation. Dr. Scott's lecture is a masterpiece, and Dr. Armstrong's rendering of "The Raven" is said to be almost grand in its perfection. A rare treat is in store for those who take themselves of hearing this lecture and recitation.

One of the most delightful ladies' entertainments ever given in Atlanta was the French conversation yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Albert Thornton's lovely home on Peachtree street.

The house was most artistically adorned with autumn flowers and the daintiest refreshments were served in the most elegant style. The ladies present were Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Dr. Cooper, Mrs. Dr. Baird, Mrs. Lowndes, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Gray, Miss Joan Clark, Miss Julia Clark, Miss Kraus, Miss Huard, Miss Grant.

At a brilliant Saturday garden party on Saturday last, we notice the names of Dr. and Mrs. J. Bussey, of Georgia, among the distinguished guests. No such gathering of wealth and beauty had been known this season. It is gratifying to the many Atlanta friends of Mrs. Bussey that among hundreds of beautiful American women present was the name of the distinguished French southern type of beauty was enhanced by an exquisite gown of black velvet and point lace.

The Young People's society of the Fourth Presbyterian church will have a very interesting literary and musical entertainment and ice cream supper at the residence of Rev. H. N. Payne, 67 Jackson street, at 8 o'clock tonight. An excellent programme has been prepared, and a rare treat is promised all who attend.

Mrs. Hal Morrison and her son, little Hal, returned Wednesday from White Sulphur Springs, Meriwether county, where they have been guests of Mr. J. M. DeLacy. The little Hal has been quite popular this year as it deserves to be. It is one of the prettiest places in the south.

Miss Mittie Pou, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Clarke at her handsome home in North

Atlanta, has left for her home in Madison, much to the regret of her many admirers, won by her beauty and fascination.

Mrs. Willis Ragan gives a children's lawn party this afternoon which will be a lovely affair and one to which all the little folks invited are looking forward with happy expectancy.

Miss Lizzie Brenning left for Cincinnati yesterday, to visit her sister, Mrs. Muller, after spending several days with her, she will go to New York from Cincinnati.

Miss Lizzie Marks returned to Atlanta yesterday, after a two months' stay in the country. Her health has been greatly improved by the visit to her family.

Misses Sis and Stella Griffin, two charming young ladies of this city, have returned home after a pleasant visit to friends in Columbus.

Miss Mamie Cummins of Kentucky, is visiting the home of her uncle, Mr. John A. Miller, No. 46 East Hill street.

Mrs. J. Scarbrough, of Newark, Ohio, is visiting her father, Mrs. T. Bennett, at 265 South Forsyth street.

Mr. Parke, of Knoxville, came to Atlanta yesterday to attend the wedding of Mr. Barnes and Miss Bostick.

Mrs. Poe has returned to her home, 15 Baltimore place, after an extended visit north with relatives.

Mr. George Barnes, of Chattanooga, Tenn., came down to attend his brother's wedding.

Miss Lena Baber, of Marietta, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P. Kinross, 201 Haynes street.

FROM HIS CO-WORKERS. The Gift of East Tennessee Employees to Their Superintendent and His Wife.

One of the suits of rooms which Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will occupy at the Kimball was furnished as a present from the employees of the Georgia division of the East Tennessee Railroad company. The room and furniture are models of art and everything harmonizes perfectly. On the floor is a plush carpet of exquisite design, and the walls of the room have been newly decorated, are adorned with pictures and bric-a-brac, all gifts of admiring friends. The suit of furniture proper is one of the finest ever brought to Atlanta, and the four pieces alone cost the donors $300. It is of solid rosewood and mahogany, with brass veneer trimmings. The bedstead, which is placed in an alcove, is a masterpiece of art and is covered with a lace counterpane of lovely pattern, is one of the most artistic designs and is hand-carved in the most delicate figures.

The wardrobe is also beautifully carved, and the door of the wardrobe is of solid mahogany, and is finished in a circular glass. The dresser and washstand are finished in the same style as the wardrobe, and are covered with a lace counterpane. A large mahogany covered library lounge and rocking chair are also included in the gift, and in fact the whole outfit is a masterpiece of art and is a gift of the employees, and one of which he and they may like to keep.

AN ASSURED SUCCESS. The Zouave Fair Crowded with Visitors Yesterday Evening.

The disagreeable weather last evening did not interfere with the success of the Zouave fair.

At least, judging by the crowd, such seemed to be the case, for from early evening till the closing hour, the army was thronged with a merry crowd of young people.

The young ladies were out in numbers, and their presence is sure to prove one of the drawing cards of the fair, for a lovelier lot has never been seen in a similar entertainment.

Till ten o'clock the visitors spent the time in looking at the articles displayed in the different booths, and after that hour dancing was in order until the close.

The Zouave string band of ten pieces furnished the music, and at different periods during the evening rendered selections from the popular operas of the day.

One of the most popular features of the fair is the Zouave band, which is a real attraction as her roses and lilies.

The wheel of fortune is well patronized, and the cigar stand is also doing a big business. Mrs. Captain Hollis presides over the unique feature of the fair. It is the "Domestic Venture," and is nothing more nor less than a small variety store. Everything from a pin to a barrel of flour is there, including champagne and everything of that sort.

The pony and cart which is being raffled at Mrs. Winburn's box is proving a bonanza. The pony is a beautiful little animal, and the whole rig is as handsome a prize as could be wished.

Mrs. Logan presided over the refreshment room last evening, and received a good share of patronage. The room is beautifully ornamented with flowers and fruits, and the center table is banked with fruits, in the center of which is a large pyramid of ice.

The booths are all doing a good business, and this evening is expected to be even better than the past two.

A number of the Artillery were out in uniform last night, and delegations from the Rifles and Guard also dropped in after their drill.

Of the Young Men's Christian association will hold their regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 8:45 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

PERSONAL. MR. SMITH B. STANFIELD, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., was in the city yesterday, on his way back to his old home in America, where he goes to accept a position in Wheatley's bank.

MR. AND MRS. F. H. GATES have returned to the city after a month's delightful sojourn in the north.

DR. FRANK T. JENKINS, Specialist, Late of University Pennsylvania and Philadelphia and Washington, D. C. hospital. Diseases of throat, nose, ear, chest and stomach, catarrhal affections, acute and chronic. Office 2-25 Peachtree st., Atlanta, Ga. Hours 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. July 25 and 30 per TYPE WRITING. And Stenographic Business—All Kinds of Work Promptly Executed.

Messrs. Crankshaw & Johnson, who are expert stenographers and type writers, have opened an office at 24 Marietta street. They will do all kinds of stenographic work, type writing, copying, etc. Office correspondence a specialty. If you need anything in this line give them a call.

GOOD REASONS WHY. The Georgia Loan, Savings and Banking is Better Than a Legitimate Building and Loan Association.

1. Because its stock is non-forfeitable, and it offers to insured men better facilities for receiving and investing their money with the best profits and quickest returns.

2. As a savings institution it is surpassed by no similar organization in the state, and it offers to the borrower, on the installment plan at 6 per cent, or a straight out loan at regular rates.

3. It can loan money anywhere in the state, optionally to the borrower, on the installment plan at 6 per cent, or a straight out loan at regular rates.

4. It can make northern connections and indorse securities on which it has advanced money at a cheap rate of interest, and it can thereby create a money commission business, which another great feature of the company.

5. It negotiates loans for its borrowers free of expense.

6. The company has its office at 234 Whitehall street, where it

WITH THE HOUSE

AN ADDITIONAL TAX PUT ON SEWING MACHINE AGENTS.

The Proceedings of the House of Representatives—Notes and News of Interest From the House.

The special order for yesterday was by Mr. Howell, of Fulton, to amend section 2 of the general tax act. This section is in reference to the license required of sewing machine agents.

The bill was passed without a dissenting vote.

The present law provides that every agent shall pay $25 license in every county. Under this law the license paid to the state this year was only $225. By the amendment passed yesterday every company doing business in the state shall pay $250, and also $5 for every one of its agents doing business in the state, and a record of such agents shall be furnished the comptroller general, and also to the ordinaries of counties in which they work.

Mr. Howell, in explaining the bill, read a letter from Captain Wright, showing that under the new law the returns would amount to about $3,000. The returns under the old law were $2,500 in 1887, and $2,400 in 1888.

Another effect of the amendment will be to bring back to Atlanta the southern headquarters of the Singer manufacturing company. The tax act was of no effect upon irresponsible agents, and reputable companies were thus at a serious disadvantage.

It was reconsidered.

Mr. Hart, of Greene, succeeded yesterday in having the house reconsider its action of Wednesday in defeating his bill to regulate and define the liability of a person illegally employing the servant of another.

The bill is one especially important to farmers. The vote Wednesday came very near passing the bill, and with a full attendance the majority would have been more than sufficient to make it a law. Mr. Hart has made a gallant fight for his bill, and is leaving no effort untried to secure its final passage.

There was a warm discussion in the house yesterday over the bill to pay the commissioners appointed under the Chandler resolution in 1887 to make an inventory of the Western and Atlantic railroad property.

The original bill had been amended by the committee on appropriations so that the commissioners, Messrs. W. M. Reese, Virgil Powers and C. B. Howard were to receive $1,000 each; Mr. R. R. Renneau, the surveyor, $1,500 and Mr. J. H. Troutman, the clerk, $750.

Several amendments were proposed, and a number of speeches made. The discussion developed the fact that a strong prejudice exists in the house against the commission because of the schedule of betterments contained in their report.

Hon. Primus Jones made the speech of the day.

"I am opposed to this bill," said he. "It proposes to pay the commissioners at the rate of $200 a month. I'd like to work for $20 a month any time."

The house applauded vigorously, and the galleries smiled and laughed.

After this speech the defense languished. Captain Gordon, chairman of the appropriations committee, finally made a motion to table the resolution. This was to save it from certain defeat under the crushing effect of Colonel Jones's speech. The resolution was tabled—to come up again when there is a fuller attendance.

FOR TODAY.

A number of important bills are to be acted upon today. In the regular order is the bill by Mr. Sims, of Wilkes, to create a state board of health.

Mr. Calvin, of Richmond, has three important bills.

Two are to provide for the publication of more complete agricultural statistics. It is more definite than the present law, and more complete. The other is to establish farmers' institutes, and to provide for their support.

Another important bill is by Mr. Twitty, of Jackson. It provides that all obligations to pay attorneys' fees in addition to the interest, on notes and similar papers, are also to be void except under certain conditions.

Another bill that may come up for a third reading today is by Mr. Gordon, of Chatham, requiring all parties that employ females in manufacturing or other establishments, to furnish seats for such employees.

Legislative Notes.

Hon. Primus Jones, of Baker, was in his seat yesterday for the first time in several days. Mr. Bell, of Forsyth, was absent yesterday to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, Rev. Mr. Gardner, of Rome.

The senate committee on lunatic asylum left yesterday for Milledgeville.

The substitute for the Hall resolution, relative to a conference with the Western and Atlantic railroad, which was reported back favorably by the Western and Atlantic committee, was made yesterday the special order for next Tuesday, the 10th of September. A bitter fight is expected over the matter, though the sentiment that favors a conference is strengthening steadily.

Dr. Felton's educational bill, to appropriate the proceeds of the lottery of the Western and Atlantic railroad to educational purposes, is the special order for next Wednesday. The author of the bill is expected to make the speech of the session in support of this measure.

Yesterday in the agricultural committee the bill to relieve ex-confederate soldiers from road duty came up. It was a noticeable fact that the old soldiers themselves were strongest in opposing the bill. This is equally true outside of the legislature. The soldiers say that they want no special exemptions—that they are not beggars and "hold up their corner yet." The bill was reported back with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The shortest bill introduced this session was by Mr. Howell, of Fulton, yesterday. There are only four lines in the bill, providing that the mayor of Atlanta shall be ex-officio a member of the board of county commissioners.

Mr. DeLoach, of Dodge, secured yesterday the passage of a joint resolution for relief of Baldy Ryals, former tax collector of Dodge county, and his sureties. At close of year 1888 the collector was unable to collect a large amount of state and county tax. He issued tax executions and placed them in the hands of one A. B. Giddens, a constable, who collected several hundred dollars and failed to pay it over promptly. The ordinary was sick and too ill to allow his insolvent list and in April of this year Ryals failed to settle with the comptroller within the time prescribed by law and that officer issued an execution against the collector and his sureties for over $2,100, with a penalty of twenty per cent. Immediately thereafter Ryals had a settlement with the comptroller, and upon being allowed his credits, vouchers and commissions there was found to be due $128, which he paid. The comptroller would have cancelled the execution upon such settlement, but had no authority to do so, and it stood against the collector for the twenty per cent penalty only—$346—which this resolution relieves against him. Mr. DeLoach says that Mr. Ryals was a faithful and efficient officer.

A very important matter came up yesterday afternoon in the general judiciary committee. It was Senator Hall's bill placing telegraph, express and sleeping car companies under the railroad commission. Colonel Davidson was on hand as the representative of the Southern Express company. Hon. N. J. Hammond for the Pullman Palace Car company, and Manager J. M. Stephens for the Western Union.

The discussion of the bill was begun, and was continued until this afternoon.

TO DO AWAY WITH INSPECTION.

Mr. Lotley of Macon, introduced an important bill in the house yesterday. It provides for the repeal of the inspection laws of the state, in so far as they relate to the inspection of fertilizers, manures and manures, and to do away with all offices created thereby. This, it will be seen, is decidedly sweeping in its provisions.

A grand feature of Hood's Sarsaparilla is, that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins enriched and vitalized, it also imparts new vigor to every function of the body.

Wood by the Car Load.

WILSON COAL AND LUMBER COMPANY, 21, South Broad street.

It requires no flaming pictures, painted houses to advertise the Street Bouquet cigarettes. Their intrinsic value alone will advertise them. If you smoke one of them you will want to smoke another. Put up five in a pack for 5 cents. For sale everywhere.

THOUGHTS FOR PEOPLE

WHO REFLECT—MOTHERS AND FATHERS ALIKE INTERESTED.

How to Save Money a Question for All—Economy is Wealth—Great Economic Questions Are Forcing Themselves Upon Us—The Question of "Trusts" and Their Legislative Management—Engage the Attention of the Public—Flaring Headlines in Our Prominent Daily Papers Announce With Hyperbolic Floridities New Combinations—Pro Bono Publico.

Economy is wealth. The 1st of September is here, and hundreds who now sojourn at the various resorts of the country will return to their own Atlanta. Business will then assume its normal aspect. Our store has been a busy one, in spite of the dull summer months, and we expect a wonderful increase in trade, commencing today, until the sound of the tin horn on the street heralds the approach of Santa Claus. We are just in receipt of our first invoices of fresh groceries for the fall trade. This is something that should command your attention. We have new crop rice, new wheat, and all kinds of oatmeal. For the dyspeptic, we have fresh graham flour, amber and white wheat. Sugar is down, and at our store you get your money's worth.

Reader, we want your trade for the fall months. We will have the best, freshest groceries that can be found in Atlanta. Our stock of all kinds of fancy groceries has been and is being replenished, and our prices will show a net saving of from 15 to 20 per cent. We receive weekly shipments of small dove sugar-cured hams, Bacon and cured meats. Our fresh Saratoga chips will be in during the week. More of those Boston butter biscuits for your breakfast, ours is the only place they can be found. Celery fresh and crisp will adorn our front during the week. Boneless cod-fish, new herring, new mackerel, and fresh imported sardines is a part of our fish stock. New, white, full cream cheese, new Neufchâtel, Edam, Pineapple and Swiss cheese. These are all nice and fresh. The only place where you can get a Simon Pure article of Porto Rico Syrup. We will soon have our new maple syrup and lavender. Think of all these things. Come over and add your name to our list of patrons. We assure you you will never regret it. Wonderful things are expected of busy Atlanta this fall. Our exposition will draw thousands. The convention of the general passenger and ticket agents of the United States and Canada will convene here, and we fire the grand complimentary protechnical display from Kennebec mountain heights, given by Mr. Joe M. Brown. All these things will keep us busy, and advertise Atlanta. Before closing we wish to inform lovers of good, extra quality tea, that we are the first to receive the new 1889 high grade Roy Bonquet Formosa Oolong tea. Remember this, and call on 90 Whitehall.

7p-11

In time of peace prepare for war and in health prepare for sickness, by buying a box of Coeline Food Powder. One powder will keep you healthy in twenty minutes. If your druggist does not have it, send 25c to the Coeline Food Powder Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

Aug 6 13 20 23 31

STILSON,
JEWELER.
55 WHITEHALL ST.
Reliable Goods,
Fair Dealing.
Bottom Prices.

GET YOUR Blank Books, Ledgers, PRINTING, Journals, Cash Books, Binding, Electrotyping, etc., etc., of
JAS. P. HARRISON & CO.,
(THE FRANKLIN PRINTING HOUSE),
State Printers, Atlanta, Ga.
Consult them before placing your orders.

The above Trade Mark speaks for itself so it is useless for us to bespeak the merits of this justly renowned Hat. We are agents also for Tress & Co.'s English Hats.

Schaffner, Swift & Harris
7 Peachtree Street.

HOTELS.

THE ORKNEY
SPRINGS AND BATHS

SHENANDOAH CO., VA.

WILL CONTINUE TO RECEIVE GUESTS AT regular rates until October 1, 1889, thus enabling their patrons to enjoy the grandeur and beauty of the mountains during September. Send for circular.

angle 10-11m
F. W. EYMAN, Manager.

TALLULAH FALLS
HAS BEEN CROWDED FROM ALL PARTS OF the country. The

GRAND VIEW
has still a large crowd and many will remain until the middle of October. The newly discovered iron and in the Grand View Park has drawn crowds from all the hotels. The Grand View offers reduced rates for September and October. Stop at the Grand View and get the lowest rates possible, and have the benefit of the best mineral water in Georgia or Tennessee. Spring within 100 yards of hotel. W. D. YOUNG, proprietor and owner.

Sulphur Spring

Aug. 28-29m.

CLIFF HOUSE AND COTTAGES,
TALLULAH FALLS, GA.

BEST EQUIPPED HOTEL IN THE BLUE RIDGE mountains. Scenery is grandly beautiful; climate absolutely perfect. Dairy and garden furnish abundant supply of fresh milk and vegetables.

MAY 2-4m
J. C. A. TIMBERLAKE, Manager.

Stoney, Gregory & Co.

Pure Drugs at Lowest Prices.

Full Stock Toilet and Fancy Articles.

PIEDMONT TOOTH POWDER

PIEDMONT EXTRACT

PIEDMONT BOUQUET SOAP

Fine Imported and Key West Cigars!

Manuel Garcia Alonso, "El Principe de Gales."

Ice Cream Soda Water 5c.

LUMBER! LUMBER!

RAY & GEISE,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Yellow Pine Lumber

Dressed Flooring,
Ceiling, Weatherboarding,
Moulding, Finishing
Lumber, Etc.

SPECIAL BILLS CUT ON SHORT

NOTICE.

Write for prices.

RAY & GEISE, Bronwood, Georgia.

June 20 11 21 31

NOTICE.

WILL BE SOLD AT THE STATIONHOUSE AT 10 o'clock P. M., on Thursday, the 7th instant, unless sooner claimed by owner, one red bell, call about 10 months old, brown ponies.

W. H. CONNOLLY, State of Fulton.

CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING.

FALL SAMPLES FOR SUITS
TO ORDER.
NOW READY
It will pay you to examine these before placing your order for a suit. Respectfully,
GEORGE MUSE
38 WHITEHALL STREET.

JOS. THOMPSON,
IMPORTER, DISTILLER
AND
WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER!

RED WINES:

Table Claret, Black Label Vintage of 1884, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts.....$5.50
Table Claret, Zinfandel Vintage of 1884, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts..... 6.50
Extra Table Claret, Red Label, Vintage of 1882, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts..... 7.50
Burgundy, Vintage of 1883, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts..... 7.50

WHITE WINES:

Sauterne Vintage, 1883, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts.....$7.50
Quetzel, Vintage of 1884, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts..... 6.50
Hock, Vintage of 1882, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts..... 7.50
Reisling, Vintage of 1882, Per Case, 1 Dozen Quarts..... 8.50

Clarets of My Own Bottling $4.00 Per Dozen Quarts!
PINTS $1.00 PER CASE EXTRA.

BEERS OF FOLLOWING BRANDS:
IMPERIAL, TIGER BRAND AND PILSENER.

FILL UP YOUR WINE CELLARS—
Madelras and Sherries, Imported and Bottled by Me, at From $10 to $30 Per Case.

LEADING BRANDS OF RYE AND BOURBON WHISKIES.

Monogram, Capital City Club, Cabinet, Hermitage, Maryland Club, Old Crow, Old Jordan, McBrayer and many others. The finest imported Olive Oil.

Send for Price List Telephone 48

ATLANTA CITY BREWING CO.

BREWERS OF THE FINEST BEER!

On and after January 1, 1889, the Atlanta City Brewing Company takes charge of their bottling department, heretofore managed by the Southern Bottling Company, Aug. Fleish, proprietor. We beg leave to inform the public that with increased facilities, we are prepared to supply the demand for the justly celebrated lager beer brewed by our company from the best Canadian malt, choice Bohemian, Bavarian and California hops, free to all for inspection at our brewery, corner Harris street and Courtland avenue.

We Solicit the Patronage of the Trade
THROUGHOUT THE SOUTH

Atlanta Machine Works,
FOUNDERS AND MACHINISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Ornamental and Structural Iron Work,
CRESTINGS, FENCES, GUARDS, GRILLES, GATES, IRON FRONTS,

COLUMNS, STAIRWAYS, BUILDERS' IRON, &c. &c
TELEPHONE 56

ATLANTA, - - - - - GEORGIA

CHAS. A. CONKLIN MFG CO

60 and 71 Whitehall and 80 S. Broad St., Atlanta

IMPORTERS OF TIN PLATE.

Manufacturers of a Complete Line of the Celebrated Patent Bottom or Fire

Proof Tinware.
(Quality Guaranteed.)

PATRONIZE HOME MANUFACTURES.

We have latest improved machinery for manufacturing all kinds of Tin Cans and Boxes, round or square, for Paints, Oils, Drugs and Grocers' Articles, and will estimate on any quantity.

FRUIT CANS, ALL KINDS AND SIZES,

Buy them before demand is so great that it will be difficult to get them.

Stoves and House Furnishing Goods Wholesale and Retail

SINGER OFFICE REMOVED.

To 63 Peachtree St., Opposite Junction of Broad St.

THE NEW SINGER LEADS THEM ALL

Singer supplies. Needles for all makes of machines. Pure sperm oil. Silk twist for embroidery and machine. Agents for the Standard Patterns. Fashion plates free.

THE SINGER MANUFACTURING CO.,

Telephone 1064. JOHN Y. DIXON, Manager.

J. M. DOBBS. W. E. DOBBS.

DOBB'S LUMBER CO.

Successors to

FULTON LUMBER AND MFG CO.,

INTERIOR AND EXTERIOR FINISH

MANTELS,

Doors and Window Frames, Brackets, Balusters, Veranda Posts, Corner Blocks, Plinth Blocks, Mouldings, etc. New designs in Scroll and Turned Work. Rough and Dressed Lumber. Office and Planing Mill.

Cor. MITCHELL AND MANGUM STS.

CLOTHING.

JAS. A. ANDERSON & CO.

OUR

Merchant Tailoring Department

Is now filled with the best stock of Cloths, Cassimeres, Cheviots, Worsteds and Overcoatings ever brought to this city—new goods and latest styles.

We Invite Your Inspection.

OUR CUTTERS ARE

PROF. C. G. GROSSE

AND

CHARLES H. GARDNER,

Late with Andrew J. Connick, Fifth Avenue, New York.

JAS. A. ANDERSON & CO.,
41 Whitehall Street.

REAL ESTATE.

Sam'l W. Goode, Robt. A. Wilson, Albert L. Beck

SAM'L W. GOODE & CO

Real Estate

OFFERS!

Mrs. R. O. Douglas instructs us to offer for quick sale the following property: First, 12 x 2, 2 story, well built, neatly finished, brick residence No. 84, Ivy st., complete with all modern conveniences, on lot 50x200 feet, with four 2 1/2 houses in rear; one whole building for $54 per month; $12,000. Also a beautiful, high, level, shaded Peachtree lot, 10x200 ft., at a 20 ft. street on the corner of Peachtree and Johnson sts.; the lot line in front and the street newly paved by the city with rubble stone and macadam, the lot line immediately north and adjoining Mr. Leonard's home; lot, $3,000.

Any for new, modern, elegantly finished Peachtree home in north Atlanta. We will show any or all of these on application at our office.

$1,000 for 30 acres on the Central R. R. between East Point and Marietta, with about 1,100 ft. front on the R. R.; plain 4 1/2 house, with necessary out-buildings, fine orchard, excellent meadow for cattle, 15 acres oak and hickory timber; bold, clear spring flowing through the place, good bottom land; whole place in fine condition, and terms very easy.

$2,500 for a neat, new 6 x 2 Pine st. residence on a corner lot, 50x150 ft.; directly on the electric line; 2 blocks east of Peachtree car line; in the neighborhood of Mayor Glenn, Porter King and other good citizens. Terms liberal.

Spring st. lot level, with east front, 50x120 ft., for $1,000.

Luckie st. lot 60x55 ft., very central, for $2,000.

Luckie st. lot 35x55 ft., $1,000.

30 acres for $500 per acre, near the electric line on William's road; about 1,200 feet on the road, and covered with a beautiful oak grove.

$1,500 for a 3

